

Editorial Note

Dear Readers, Contributors, and Colleagues

This issue marks an important milestone in the history of Burapha Science Journal. We are pleased to share with our readers that the journal has been officially indexed in Scopus. This achievement reflects the collective efforts of our authors, reviewers, editorial board members, and editorial staff in maintaining the quality, integrity, and consistency of the journal over the years.

Scopus indexing is the beginning of a new stage in the journal's development. BSJ remains committed to publishing high-quality multidisciplinary research across its broad scientific scope while serving as a bilingual journal that welcomes manuscripts in both Thai and English. We will continue to support scientific communication while enhancing the journal's quality, visibility, and international impact.

On behalf of the Editorial Board, I would like to express my sincere appreciation to our authors, reviewers, readers, and all colleagues whose dedication and continued support have made this achievement possible. We look forward to working together to further strengthen the quality, impact, and international recognition of BSJ in the years ahead.

Warm regards,

Klaokwan Srisook
